Ankündigung Agrartechnisches Seminar

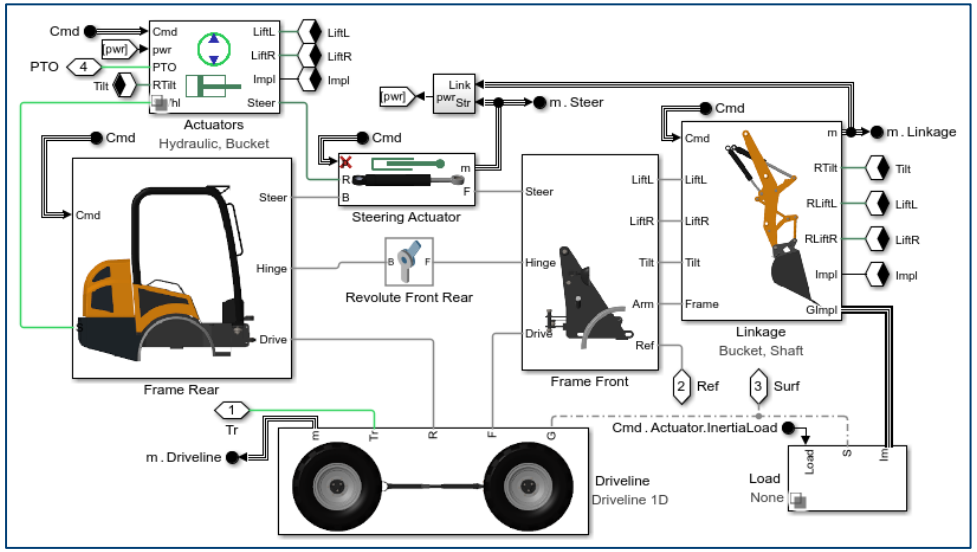

Reach for the Run Button: Lessons from Simulating Off-Road Vehicles

In this talk, we will look at challenges encountered in the development of excavators, tractors, graders, and forklifts, and at the approaches that encouraged engineers to reach for the run button rather than immediately building another prototype. The lessons from these projects will be illustrated through concrete examples using MATLAB scripts, Simscape models, and simulations combining Simulink with other simulation environments.

Steve Miller

Technical Marketing Manager, Simscape Product Family

Montag, 23.11.2026

16:15 Uhr

HS 8

Link zur Online Teilnahme

MathWorks®